Delap LLP Welcomes Mark O. Symonds and Steven A. Evans, Audit Partners

Lake Oswego, OR (June 1, 2009) – Delap LLP, one of Oregon’s largest local public accounting firms welcomes Mark O. Symonds and Steven A. Evans to their practice located in Lake Oswego, Oregon.

Mark Symonds brings over thirty years of experience providing audit, accounting, and consulting expertise to his public and privately-held clients. Mark will lead the financial institutions practice and lend his knowledge within the following practice areas as well: employee benefit plans, aviation, forest products, healthcare and construction.

In the course of Steve Evans’ career, he has provided audit and financial reporting expertise to both privately-held and non-profit clients. He has served hospitals, physician clinics, health maintenance organizations, hospital-based foundations, and other related healthcare organizations for almost thirty years. At Delap, Steve will lead the firm’s healthcare practice.

Both are a welcomed addition to the Delap family. Their combined experience provides Delap another avenue to reach a wider scope of clients.
