New Tax Partner Announced at Local Public Accounting Firm

Lake Oswego, OR (January 11, 2012) – Delap LLP, Oregon’s largest local public accounting firm, has announced that Earl Pierce has been elevated to tax partner.

Earl originally joined Delap LLP in 2005. He has worked closely with Northwest business owners to provide the financial clarity and creativity required to lead a successful organization. Earl’s proactive and original approach to tax strategy has fueled his popularity amongst his clients. In addition to client service responsibility, Earl has contributed to the tax design of the Entrepreneurial Advisory Service (EAS) team which serves the unique financial needs of Delap’s fastest growing clients.

Prior to joining Delap, Earl started his accounting career with KPMG in Los Angeles, CA. His time with a large international firm exposed him to the complex tax issues often connected to global businesses operating within various domiciles. His early accounting career also exposed him to firsthand experience with attest services and various business advisory services.

Dave DeLap, the managing partner of Delap LLP says, “We are excited to welcome Earl as a partner. His daily energy and vision brings transformative value to his clients and our team. Earl will continue to play an integral role in the leadership of our growing organization today and for the years to come.”

For nearly 80 years, Delap has leveraged firm experience to serve the Pacific Northwest, empowering business owners and individuals to realize personal and professional goals. Call Delap today at 503-697-4118 to see what they can do for your business.
